BOONE COUNTY ADOPTS DISASTER DECLARATION

Boone County, Illinois - In response to the ongoing issue of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Boone County Board has approved a disaster declaration to support the County's effort. While at this time Boone County does not have a positive case of COVID-19, this declaration will help with the furnishing of aid and assistance to the County from Federal and State resources, as they become available. This is a proactive measure to ensure Boone County is leveraging all the resources it can to ensure the public's health and safety.

Questions regarding COVID-19 may be directed to Boone County Health Department's COVID-19 information line at 815-547-8561 or COVID19@boonehealth.org. Questions regarding the declaration itself may directed to the Boone County Administration Department at 815-547-4770.
